MEMO ENDORSED

Honorable Denise Cote

 Southern District of New York

Re: Trustees of the 1199/SEIU Greater New York Benefit Fund et al. v.
 Kingsbridge Heights Rehabilitation Care Center
 Case No. 07-cv-09744-DLC

Dear Judge Cote:

We represent Plaintiffs in the above matter and write with regard to the preliminary conference now set for April 11, 2008. I have a long standing family vacation overseas that is set to begin that day so I am unable to attend that conference. However, I propose holding the initial conference on April 9.

On March 13, 2008, I received an email from Joel Cohen, of the firm McDermott Will and Emery, stating that he would no longer be representing defendant and directing all inquiries concerning pending and future matters to Helen Sieger, the owner of Defendant. The Jasinski and Williams firm has taken over the representation of defendant in one matter pending before the National Labor Relations Board, and, for that reason, although the docket does not reflect a substitution of counsel, I have copied Mr. Jasinski on this letter.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,
